HOLIDAY BAZAAR

The IWC Holiday Bazaar was a big success! NAWA made almost 100,000 HUF in baked goods and spiced nuts. Thank you ladies for your donations, volunteering and of course buying our items! A special thank you to the nut bakers -- Renee Belec and Adrienne Athanas who spent hours and hours stirring the nuts to become really tasty morsels! The nuts turned out to be a big seller so we will continue this tradition next year. Christina Orban's security guard at the museum shelled ten kilos of nuts for us -- they were large, perfectly shaped and delicious! We will contact him again next year, and may even purchase more nuts! Another special thank you goes to Giovanna Mandato, who was selling Icons for a local artist. When Giovanna explained what NAWA was and how we raise money for charity, the artist's wife wanted to donate baked goods as well. She made these delicious cheese sticks that were some of the best I've had here! We are hoping she will share her recipe with us. Look for a recipe or two in the upcoming Bridge.

Thanks again for your time and support! This is what makes NAWA special!
