February Coffee & Chat
with Ceramic Artist
Edit Bukrán

Edit Bukrán is a very talented internationally acclaimed Hungarian ceramic artist producing highly collectable one-of-a-kind pieces. She is graciously inviting NAWA members and their friends into her home workshop for a complimentary coffee morning.

We will be introduced to the many stages involved in producing her famous works, witness the production method of Edit's trademark "pebble" technique and have a chance to order fine ceramics pieces from her at a highly discounted price.

Coming Up at the Museum of Fine Arts Budapest...

The Dawn of 20th Century Modernism: Art from 1880–1914

For the first time ever the Museum of Fine Arts Budapest offers the public a lecture series focusing on its Modern Collection. The new season starts this week with:

9 February "Unmasking Facades – The Naked Truth of the Fin de Siècle"

16 February "Art Movements Geared towards Modernism"

No advance registration required - come when you can. Tickets cost 2.500 Ft and can be purchased right before the lecture in the lobby. Lectures are from 10.15 to 12 noon. Afterward, use the ticket to enjoy all the galleries in the permanent collection.

Contact christina.orban@szepmuveszeti.hu for more details, or visit www.mfab.hu (click on Education, then Docent Program) to see all the lecture titles and dates.

A virtual rose for Siobhan Broderick - thanks so much for taking me to pick up the books - from Trisha at the NAWA book table.

The Hungarian Tourism Ltd. is organizing a special event for February 18th (Thursday), which is called "Torkos Csütörtök" (Greedy Thursday, similar to Fat Tuesday/Húshagyó Kedd). This is the second day of Lent in the Western Christian Calendar (following Ash Wednesday), when eating meat is still permitted.

Hundreds of restaurants will participate in this program all over Hungary offering a 50 % discount on the final bills to their guests. If you are planning to try out a place you have never been or would like to dine in your favorite restaurant at half price, please reserve a table in time.

Restaurants have already started signing up for this event. You may monitor the following website to see the list, which will be growing day by day in February as more and more restaurants are joining in:

<http://www.menjunkenni.hu/> and click on the Éttermi Lista button on the left of the screen (Hungarian only). This website can be accessed from www.itthon.hu too.
